Hello from the Hudson Valley!

About the Artist

Cindy LaColla is an illustrator living in New York. You can find her out in the gorgeous Hudson Valley with a sketchbook and her daughters in tow. She loves planning adventures with her two little girls who are her biggest inspirations – they particularly love the ocean. If she could, she'd love to snorkel all day, and dance all night. Drawing allows her to slow down, de-stress, and focus on living a happy, inspired life with her family. Cindy draws in her studio overlooking a tree-lined yard with the sun streaming in. You can find her full story in her art.

Thank you for supporting and sharing her art across the world. 2021 marked the 10th year for Cynla!
